About Organisation

The Pandit Jawahar Lal Mishra Welfare Trust, established in 2016, supports marginalized communities in India through initiatives such as child rights, health, skill development, and women entrepreneurship. They offer advocacy, education, and essential services, including free education for 100,000+ impoverished students across 5000 schools. The trust also operates the PJLM English School and plans to build a free hospital for the village's poor. Your donation can make a real difference in the lives of these individuals.

Mission:

The Pandit Jawahar Lal Mishra Welfare Trust's mission is to uplift marginalized communities in India through initiatives in child rights, health, skill development, and women entrepreneurship. They provide free education to over 100,000 impoverished students, operate the PJLM English School, and plan to build a free hospital for the village's underprivileged. Their goal is to empower individuals and communities for a brighter future.

Vision:

The vision of the Pandit Jawahar Lal Mishra Welfare Trust is to create a more equitable society in India by supporting marginalized communities. Through initiatives in child rights, health, skill development, and women entrepreneurship, they aim to empower individuals and foster sustainable development. The trust envisions a future where all residents, especially the vulnerable, have access to education, healthcare, and essential services, leading to a thriving and inclusive society.

Message From Founder
